Medical Authorization and Liability:

I understand that certain risks of injury are inherent to participation in recreational camp activities like games, arts and crafts, and walking to and from our destination. Big Sky Studios, The Staircase Theatre + Lounge, Maggie Spring, Annie Webber, or staff/volunteers of any affiliation, are not responsible for any accident, injury or loss, however sustained, to your child or child's property, or for any personal injury or mishap. Activities will include arts and crafts with various tools, games involving physical activity, walking, running, and playing at a playground. I give my child permission to play and be in the outlined scenarios, with appropriate supervision. I understand and accept that such activities pose inherent risks for my child; risks inherent to walking to our destination of Tom St. Park and back, being in public spaces, the potential for being outside when bad weather occurs, and being around or exposed to various foods. I understand and consent that scheduled activities, such as walking to Tom St. Park, may change to avoid bad weather. I will prepare my child for a full day of activity by providing a full, nutritious lunch, water, and close-toed shoes.

I have read the above information and give consent for my child to participate in all activities. I understand that this program has a physical component to it. By signing below, I acknowledge that my child is medically fit to undertake the outlined activities. If at any time emergency medical treatment is necessary for my child, I give my consent for treatment to be given.
